

October Newsletter

Issue 4 - Thursday 7 October 2021

Why is portraiture so popular?

Ahead of our Curated Show on portraiture, Sixteen Gallery owner and director Andy Owen-Smith talks about how the art form is appreciated in different ways from artists, galleries and buyers.

Read the article

What Happened In September?

Adam Dobby - Created in Conflict

6th - 20th September

For two weeks in September, former Tier 1 Special Forces operator turned journalist Adam Dobby exhibited his photographs in his show 'Created in Conflict'.

Adam uses his camera as an extension of his instincts to make friends across cultures with people who might otherwise be fearful and untrusting of the international media crews he supports around the world.

Read the blog post

Cheltenham Open Studios

25th September - 3rd October

Sixteen Gallery was delighted to host 5 artists as part of the Cheltenham Open Studios 2021 art trail.

The event was a great success as over 500 visitors came to the gallery to see the show and support the artists.

A big thank you to our artists and to everyone who came along to see the exhibition.

Learn more

What's Happening This Month?

Curated Show

9th - 17th October

We are very excited to be holding our first ever Curated Show about portraits, featuring the works of Lindy Allfrey, Emma Brazil, Sheila Bryant, Neil Burridge, Kate Doherty, Charlie Graham-May, Paula Kear, Rebecca Lodwig, Lucy Milne, Andy Owen-Smith, Arthur Owen-Smith, Leanne Pearce and Hannah Shergold.

The show will run from 9th - 17th October, 10am - 8pm, with the Private View event being held on Saturday 9th October, 5:30pm - 8:30pm.

Learn more

Land, Sea and Sky

28th October - 3rd November

Gloucestershire artists, Tracy Hunt, Tony Davie and Gerald Crittle will exhibit as a group, showcasing their different styles and interpretations of 'Land, Sea & Sky'.

Learn more

Visit our website

Check out our website for other gallery and exhibition news.

Sixteen Gallery website

Follow us

16 Rotunda Terrace,
Cheltenham GL50 1SW,
UK
01242 335545