

New online booking system now live!

We are pleased to announce that our new online booking system to hire Sixteen Gallery is now live. We have simplified the hiring options and now offer additional services to help support you with your exhibition.

Thank you to all those who registered their interest and who have now booked for 2022. We have already had a wonderful response so far and look forward to welcoming you all soon. There are still a few weeks left so if you are interested in exhibiting with us, please check the availability by clicking on the button below.

Book now

What Happened In October?

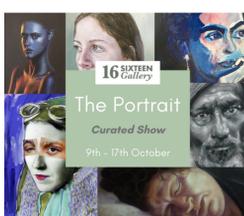

Portrait Curated Show

9th - 17th October

In October, Sixteen Gallery held its first ever Curated Show on Portraiture, featuring a variety of different artists including painters, illustrators and sculptors.

We're glad to say the event was a great success and we look forward to holding more Curated Shows in the future.

Read more

Land, Sea and Sky

28th October - 3rd November

Gloucestershire artists, Tracy Hunt, Tony Davie and Gerald Crittle held their group exhibition 'Land, Sea & Sky', showcasing their different styles and interpretations of the theme.

"Thank you to everyone who visited the exhibition and especially those who purchased a painting. I appreciate your support and encouragement." - Gerald Crittle.

If you missed the show, you can still catch it at Lansdown Art Studios on 3rd, 4th and 5th December.

Read more

What's Happening This Month?

Andy Owen-Smith

11th - 22nd November

Sixteen Gallery owner and artist Andy Owen-Smith will be using the gallery for the next two weeks. In addition to exhibiting and selling his work, he will also be using the space as a studio.

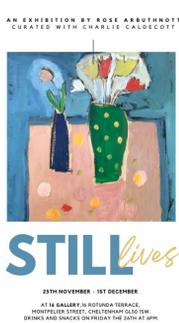

"As our next exhibition isn't for a little while, I thought I'd take the opportunity to exhibit some of my own work but also make a start on some recent commissions and begin preparing for an exhibition I'm having in March 2022."

Opening hours:
11th November - 22nd November: 1pm - 6pm

Still Lives by Rose Arbuthnott

25th November - 1st December

For her upcoming exhibition at Sixteen Gallery, artist Rose Arbuthnott explores her Still Lives work which spans 3 years in 3 phrases, with this exhibition being her latest.

This has been a long term project, but she has been focusing more particularly during the Covid lockdowns. Rose uses materials such as panel and oil paint to create her work and paints in her kitchen, intending her pieces find similar domestic settings.

Read more

What's Happening Next Month?

Naturally Figurative by Paula Kear, Trudi Hayden & Ann Hunt

2nd - 8th December

An exhibition of paintings and drawings exploring wildlife, portraits and the natural world.

Paula Kear creates finely detailed drawings of people and animals using chalk pastel pencils, Ann Hunt (Owls End Art) is passionate about wildlife conservation, in particular an elephant orphanage, so sensitively portrays their personalities. Trudi Hayden professionally paints her beloved Cotswold countryside, capturing its moods with realism.

Opening hours:
2nd December: 2pm - 8pm
3rd - 8th December: 10am - 5pm

Read more

Christmas Show

9th - 24th December

Sixteen Gallery will be holding a Christmas Exhibition in December.

Featuring a mixture of artists, the exhibit will showcase a variety of artworks perfect for Christmas gifts.

Upcoming Gallery News Features

Make sure you check out the upcoming December issue of Cotswold Life Magazine to read a feature on Sixteen Gallery, and how Montpellier is growing to become the "art quarter of Cheltenham".

For even more local art news, check out the November issue of the Cheltenham Art eBulletin by clicking the button below.

Read the eBulletin

Visit our website

Check out our website for other gallery and exhibition news.

Sixteen Gallery website

Follow us

16 Rotunda Terrace,
Cheltenham GL50 1SW,
UK
01242 335545